About the CSO

Jessica Cottis, Chief Conductor and Artistic Director

One of the most outstanding Australian conductors working today, 2026 marks Cottis' sixth season as Chief Conductor and Artistic Director of the Canberra Symphony Orchestra. Under her leadership, the orchestra has already developed a number of important new initiatives, including significant commissions and championing of Australian works. Recognised for her engaging, wide-ranging and thought-provoking programming, Cottis' domain is music of the nineteenth to twenty-first centuries.

Concert season

Llewellyn Series

The CSO's four flagship concerts, performed on Wednesday and Thursday evenings at Llewellyn Hall, pair iconic symphonic masterworks with compelling Australian compositions and features a range of guest artists.

Australian Series

These nationally unique, Thursday evening concerts exclusively feature Australian chamber works, with a commissioning focus.

Chamber Classics

Introduced in 2021, this series celebrates well-loved chamber repertoire at Gandel Hall at the National Gallery of Australia. There will be four Chamber Classics concerts in 2026, held on Sunday afternoons.

Community engagement

With the support of the ACT Government and Community Partners, CSO community engagement delivers positive outcomes for the region in health and wellbeing, education, innovation and social cohesion. The CSO is also committed to generating pathways for emerging artists through the Future Pathways Program, made possible by the generous support of the orchestra's philanthropic community.

Musical services

The CSO reaches thousands each year through musical services provided to a range of popular, family-friendly events across the region, including Queanbeyan's award-winning Music by the River, and Symphony in the Park at Stage 88. The CSO has also supported a range of other arts organisations to deliver rich, thought-provoking cultural experiences, such as large-scale productions with The Australian Ballet, National Opera, and Flowers of Peace.

Position Description

Key functions and responsibilities

CSO Tutti musicians fulfil the following duties, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the CSO's Enterprise Bargaining Agreement 2019–2021:

- Prepare musically as required prior to the first rehearsal.
- Arrive at rehearsals and concerts in time to tune with the orchestra.
- Comply with the orchestra's tuning process.
- Follow directions from the conductor, Concertmaster, section leader and / or section Principal, marking music in accordance with directions where appropriate.
- Contribute to a professional and harmonious work environment.
- Dress appropriately for performances in keeping with the ensemble nature of CSO activity.
- Uphold professional standards and act in the best interests of the orchestra as a whole, at all times.

Etiquette

- CSO musicians are expected to arrive 15 minutes prior to a call to ensure tuning takes place on time.
- To ensure rehearsals run efficiently to time, verbal communication should be restricted to questions and comments essential for concert preparation.
- Musicians should follow the Conductor's/Concert Master's/Section Leader's/Principal's instructions and when appropriate mark their music in accordance therewith.

Rostering

CSO Principals roster sections based on player strengths and preferences, in consultation with the Concertmaster. The majority of contracts are issued to players based in the Canberra region, which reflects the CSO commitment to supporting the growing pool of high calibre, local players and developing emerging talent, while maintaining key interstate connections. This is important for the sustainability of the CSO into the future.

Audition Requirements

Candidates will be required to present:

- First movement (exposition only) of one of the concertos set for their instrument (see list below), without cadenza.
- Orchestral excerpts selected for their instrument from the provided list on page 6.

Auditions will consist of two rounds: a recorded round and an in-person round.

For the initial recorded round, applicants will submit a single take recording of their requested concerto and orchestral excerpts to be judged anonymously by a panel of CSO musicians. From this submission, the panel have the option to pass the applicant, fail the applicant, or request the applicant move forward to the second round of in person auditions. Please do not speak or identify yourself on this recording.

The second round will consist of a screened in-person audition with the jury panel where the applicant will perform a selection of the excerpts and concertos.

Please note that auditions are only available for applicants located within the Australian Capital Territory and surrounding areas.

To apply, candidates must complete the online application form and submit a CV and recorded audition by clicking here.

27^b. Chorus

(Lasset uns den nicht zertellen / Let us rend not nor divide it)

The musical score is written for two staves, likely representing a vocal line and a basso continuo line. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The score is divided into measures, with measure numbers 10, 14, 18, 22, 26, and 30 marked at the beginning of their respective systems. The notation includes various note values (quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes), rests, and accidentals (sharps and naturals). A large bracket on the left side of the first system (measures 10-13) and another on the right side of the sixth system (measures 29-30) indicate specific musical phrases or sections. The text 'col. B.gr.' is written below the first staff in the first system. The score concludes with a double bar line at the end of measure 30.

Mendelssohn: Midsummer Night's Dream, Scherzo

The image displays a musical score for Mendelssohn's Scherzo from A Midsummer Night's Dream. It consists of four systems of piano and bass staves. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic and a pizzicato (pizz.) instruction. The second system features a piano (p) dynamic. The third system includes a crescendo (cresc.) marking. The fourth system starts with a forte (sf) dynamic, followed by a piano (p) dynamic and an arco instruction. The score is written in 3/4 time and includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings.
