

Canberra
Symphony
Orchestra

Sue Daw Scholarship

In 2023, the CSO will offer two instrumental music tuition scholarships to adults with hearing loss. The successful applicants will receive weekly 30-minute lessons with a CSO musician, free of charge, from July to November 2023.

Instrumental options include violin, cello, double bass, percussion and harp. The CSO will facilitate rental instruments where required and cover the cost of instrument hire for the duration of the scholarship.

Completed forms may be emailed to donna.parkes@csso.org.au or posted to:

Canberra Symphony Orchestra
Attn: Donna Parkes
GPO Box 1919
Canberra ACT 2601

Applicant details

Full name

Email address

Phone number

Do you wear hearing aids or cochlear implants?

Canberra
Symphony
Orchestra

In a few sentences, please outline your aspirations in applying and the benefit you may gain from this experience.

Instrumental preference

Scholarship options in 2023 include:

- Violin with Michelle Higgs
- Cello with Samuel Payne
- Double Bass with Isabella Brown
- Percussion with Veronica Bailey
- Harp with Rowan Phemister

First preference

Second preference

--	--

Sue Daw OAM has supported the CSO for many years and played a key role in establishing the Rediscovering Music program for people with hearing loss. She joined the Canberra branch of Better Hearing Australia in 1994 and went on to lead the branch from 1999 to 2018. In 2009, Sue was awarded the Medal of the Order of Australia for services to people with a hearing impairment.